A Soft Place To Fall Barbara Parsons

Dakota Morgan lives alone on a limited income while her husband spends his last days in a nursing facility. She is a woman of great passion and feels that she has never known the great love she so longs for. On a rainy night she meets the man of her dreams while standing over a bin of orange peppers and together they build an unbelievable life together. It is a story of love, passion and success after the age when society decides it's over. A story of inspiration, laughter and tears. It is really the story of a family, but one held together by the strength of one woman and the men she chooses to love.
