Pistol Pete's Memoirs of Camp Pekin - A Federal Prison by Mary A. Vaughan 77-year-old former nun, missionary, teacher, social activist, and prisoner of conscience writes about her experiences leading up to and during her six-month federal prison sentence for peaceful protest against the School of the Americas (also known as SOA and WHINSEC). She suffered a heart attack while incarcerated and completed the full term of her sentence. Mary received the 2009 Inspirational Life Story Award in June of 2009 for her courageous story and life. One of Mary's quotes from the book provides insight into her dedication to serving others: "Sometimes in our lives, an opportunity opens to us like an epiphany. You can live only with the promise that there is fullness in living. With that, you must take the daily risk and choose life, even if it brings uncomfortable consequences." Hardcover book with 106 pages. Published in 2009 by Celebrations of Life.
