Frat boys are animals...

Roxy has had enough of privileged, rich college guys. They've never given her anything but grief, and a big girl like her is just chum in the water at their wild parties. When she turns twenty, she's finally reached her limit, and ditches her Ivy League hometown for scenic Jackson Hole, Wyoming, as far from any fraternity house as she can get. Or so she thinks.

But the foothills surrounding Jackson Hole conceal a startling secret: Blackmeade University, a select, private, men's-only college where nothing is as it seems. Before Roxy can put her foot down, she's dragged back into the frat-party scene.

This time, however, everything's different. Far from being the butt of fraternity jokes, Roxy's presence sets the brothers of Alpha Delta Phi at one other's throats – even Chase, the darkly gorgeous junior who can't wait to get away from Blackmeade and start a new life of his own.

Is it Roxy's lush, curvy body that's driving the members of Alpha House wild? Or is Roxy hiding a fascinating secret of her own?
