What Men Want: How to Attract a Man and Keep a Man for Good Daytona Watterson

Most relationship advice books that offer to help you discover what men want are full of the same techniques women having been trying for decades. Times have definitely changed and attracting a man is not as simple as those techniques imply. Today you have to be a little more creative and understand what a man really wants if you plan on getting him to fall for you. Here's a book that shows you current techniques that work for uncovering the real secrets to what men want and how you can make a man fall for you.

In her book, What Men Want, Daytona Watterson—authority on relationship advice—shows you step by step techniques for identifying what men like and hate when it comes to qualities in women. Daytona draws on her own personal experiences with having made all the wrong decisions early on that you can definitely learn from. She shows you what she did wrong and how she corrected those mistakes. There really is no reason you have to waste time anymore making the same mistakes she made. This book will show you how to identify things that can transform the way guys see you and how you can keep a man for good.

~ I have made all those mistakes that send guys running the other way after we started dating. Chances are that one of you is making those mistakes today and risk losing the guy because of them. Over the course of three years I kept switching up my approach, yet the guys eventually kept losing interest. It wasn't until I discovered the secrets to what men want that my relationships turned around. I stopped making those silly mistakes that all of us girls make when we first find a guy we are crazy about. Those experiences taught me so much about myself and how to keep a guy, and now you get the benefit of all my hard learned lessons right here in one book. I will show you everything I learned about where the right guys are and how to hook the one you want for the long haul. Daytona ~
