In book one of Breaking Protocol: Alaina Bradford is living a nightmare. She struggles to support herself and her daughter after her husband leaves her high and dry. She is running on fumes with no end in sight to her predicament—a normal life for her daughter and her.

Brody Williams and Leland Reynolds are best friends with big dreams of planting roots and building a life for themselves away from the military—or at least that is what they are telling themselves.

After a kidnapping, and a damsel in distress, these two world-weary soldiers are back in action. Only this time they have control over meting out justice. Their plans change when they realize, you can have the best of both worlds. A family life with the added bonus of doing what you think is right to weed out the scum in this world.

Can the men convince Alaina to give up her heart to not just one, but two men? In addition, can they save their country and everything they believed in when breaking protocol just got a lot more personal?
