The 21st century edition of that timeless classic of Rock and Roll, true love, and incredible adventure. Get Outta Town is the story of an aging Deadhead who attends a concert in Eugene and gets caught up in an adventure that involves him with a greedy IRS, a delusional CIA, and the Grateful Dead. The IRS wants his money, the CIA wants his bootleg tape, and the Dead want him to stop the Coffee Cartel from destroying the rainforest. Our hero tangles with unsavory characters in Brazil, pursues true love, and saves the world. He makes a brave stand against the forces of bureaucracy, fast food, and evil. Things will never be the same. Beloved by fans and true patriots, this is a book that goes to some shows, plumbs the depths of outer and inner space, stays high, and rocks out! Written back in the day, when no one would ever say back in the day, Get Outta Town truly captures a time of good music, good vibes, and unlimited possibility.
