I began my college career in the fall of 2008 at Olney Central College in Olney, Illinois. OCC is part of the Illinois Eastern Community Colleges system. I spent two semesters at OCC, until I moved in the summer of 2009. I transferred in the fall of 2009 to Ashford University in Clinton, Iowa. I took advantage of the online education offered by Ashford, which allowed me to study at my home in Clarkston, Michigan. I had two concurrent majors with Ashford: first: social sciences with an education concentration; and second: English. The papers in this book are the collected written assignments of my undergraduate career at Olney Central College and Ashford University. They are presented in chronological order within each course, and the courses, aside from the first semester, are given in consecutive order. The papers in the first two semesters were written using MLA format, with subsequent papers being written in APA format, as required by the individual schools. I completed my undergraduate studies in April of 2013 and graduated from Ashford University in the spring.
