"Graphic Design USA 10" is the annual of the American Institute of Graphic Arts' 1988-89 season. It has been designed as a permanent reference of the year's most significant graphic designs, including annual reports, catalogues, packaging, brochures, posters and stationery. The volume includes sections on communications graphics, book shows, AIGA medalists George Tscherny and William Golden, and a study of the "New York Times", the recipient of the Institute's Design Leadership Award. The volume also contains a list of all the professionals involved in the creation and production of graphic design.
