Fool me once... shame on me. Fool me twice? Well, Katie has no plans to let that old saying play out in her love life. After being duped by a man who only used her to further his political agenda, Katie has no place in her life for love, for men. She can live with the broken heart, with knowing Nathan slept with her best friend. But when she's accused of domestic terrorism, thanks to Nathan, she's forced to accept the help of Homeland Security Agent Kaiden James. Once he gets her off the hook she'll send him on his way and pick up the pieces of her broken life—no matter how kind, intelligent, or sinfully sexy he is. When duty called him away from his cousin's wedding to deal with a high profile case, Kaiden James could hardly believe his eyes. The last person he'd expected to see handcuffed to a table was the lovely nurse that had taken care of his gunshot wound last year. Memories of the sponge bath she'd given him had kept him awake more than a few nights since. Working with Katie will put his professionalism to the test. Will Kaiden once again let duty come before love? Second in the Defenders of Love Series after Witness Protection
