Girl Gone Missing (Lambert and Hook Book 11) J M Gregson
Chepstow Castle, Gloucestershire.

A woman makes a gruesome discovery whilst out walking her dog.

The body of a teenage girl has been washed up on the banks of the River Wye, after weeks spent decomposing in the water.

But this is no suicide.

Bruising to the throat and legs indicates that the girl, Alison Watts, was dead before she reached the water.

For Superintendent Lambert and Sergeant Hook, an unsolved missing person's case has just become a murder.

As Lambert and Hook delve deeper into the murky depths of the local community, they uncover shocking secrets about Alison Watts.

The local papers had portrayed her as the picture of innocence...

But was Alison the bright and beautiful schoolgirl the local paper's described?

It seems it was not just the murderer who had something to hide...

'Girl Gone Missing' is an expertly-plotted crime thriller that will keep readers gripped to the last page.
