The Nazis are sweeping through Europe, and all the talk in France is of war. For Vianne and Isabelle Mauriac, two sisters separated by ten years and a hundred miles, the coming years will bring trials—and opportunities—they've never before dreamt of. "In love we find out who we want to be," our narrator tells us as the book opens. "In war we find out who we are."

Kristin Hannah has written over twenty novels, among them her award-winning debut, A Handful of Heaven. The Nightingale, her first novel set during World War II, is already bringing in praise from longtime fans as well as new readers.

With this Sidekick, you'll:

- Learn what you might have missed on your first read of Hannah's novel
- Discover some of the book's secret gems and underlying themes
- Explore possible alternate endings and imagine ideas for a sequel
- Spend some more time with the characters you've come to know and love, delving deep into their psyches and hidden motives
