Although you may profess a belief in Jesus Christ as the Son of God and the Savior of the world, have you personally experienced the surety of His promises to you? With so many activities pulling your attention, having an intimate relationship with Jesus Christ as your personal Savior may be difficult to maintain, especially during times of crisis and stress. Experiencing Christ: Coming to Know Your Savior offers hope by illustrating that every affliction and trial of mortality serves a sacred purpose that of turning us to Christ. Each of us will be tutored on a personal level through our unique God-given challenges. It is after we have experienced illness that we comprehend our need for a physician. It is after we have experienced bondage that we understand our need for deliverance. And it is by experiencing spiritual and physical death that we can know the glory of eternal life that comes through the Atonement. A personal relationship with the Savior guarantees peace, healing, and understanding of things to come. Let this book guide you in coming to know Him through personal experience. There is no other way!
