How long can he deny what is right before him? Experience the rare opportunity to see this esteemed man's world change, from behind his eyes.

It is always darkest before the light.

For the avid reader of the Consequences series, it is recommended that this companion be read after Consequences, Truth, Convicted, and Revealed for more insight into the man who:

“Once upon a time, signed a napkin that he knew was a contract. As an esteemed businessman, he forgot one very important rule. He forgot to read the fine print. It wasn't an acquisition to own another person as he'd previously assumed. It was an agreement to acquire a soul.” —Aleatha Romig, CONVICTED
