"Eight Days To Shanghai," a tempestuous adventure with a twist, entails the life and loves of Madison Wells, an elementary school teacher with a zest for life in the midst of a budding relationship with Roland Divine, a Napa Valley wine maker and CEO of Divine Winery. Caught up in a messy divorce with her husband, unappreciative and workaholic architect Stephen Wells, and disillusioned over men in general, she jaunts off to China for a little fun and fulfillment. Her travels find her first in the modernistic city of Shanghai and then Beijing, where she bumps unexpectedly into a handsome young gentleman desiring to become her lover. While passions escalate, so do tempers, as a bellhop at the swank hotel passes her a secret note. On it are scribbled only three words- "Jiuhua," "Green," and "Cloud," words which are simple, but which will change her life forever.
