Are There Nuts in the Pecan Pie?: stories from a ridiculous life by Rebecca Roberts Rebecca Roberts
Shorts about the funny, petty, absurd stuff in life; Hollywood, San Francisco, the Obama election, Rock Stars on the hunt, Men on the hunt, Employers on the hunt, Single Girls who don't like the hunt but will adapt in order to survive . . . and some thought provoking, sappy, sentimental stuff too. I'm coming into a dream career very late - I didn't even think of trying it until I was 32 years old. I am 11 years in now and everyday is a struggle and adventure, even when I don't leave my apartment. Can I call it a career if it doesn't yet support me? You bet your ass. I hope you find a connection, a kinship, a giggle for what we all go through, life. Or maybe some understanding for the sister, daughter, brother, son, parent, niece, nephew, cousin or best friend who seems to have gone off the deep end to pursue a ridiculous life. My family did, and still do. Thank God. Thanks Family! I can speak for most dreamers when I say that we love living it because we cannot seem to live anything else (blunders, battles, broken hearts and all). I really hope you enjoy reading about it. If not, please be kind. Best, R. Roberts
