Harland County Series/Book 5: Jace

Holly's stay in Harland County Texas is limited. She's only there to help run her uncle's ice cream business while he recuperates from an operation. Her home is in Colorado. Her life is in Denver. Her dream job is in Denver but won't be if she doesn't get back before her leave of absence runs out. Everybody knows this, but apparently her heart and body didn't get the memo because they spark to life whenever her uncle's smoking, hot doctor is around. But she's been burned by one before and is definitely not interested. Much.

Doctor Jace Turner has one goal: Join Doctors Without Borders. Ever since his father was in a car accident and became HIV Positive from a blood transfusion, Jace set his sights on the organization and plans to join, once his contract is up with the Texas National Guard. The last thing he needs is the crazy attraction he feels toward the beauty from Colorado.

The cowboy isn't looking for a relationship. She isn't staying. Perfect set up for a fling. What harm could there be?
