During Christmastime 2009, Mary's son Scott invited her to go on a hiking trip in Scotland. At the time of the invitation, there were circumstances that indicated that a hiking trip anywhere, even in the neighborhood, was not a possibility, or even a desire. Mary's book THIS! is her story of considering the possibility of participating in a trip like that, and then consistently looking for and taking action that would have the possibility become a reality. "It is not the destination – it is the journey that is the deliciousness of life."
