The Silence Within (The Young Ancients Book 11) P.S. Power

There is a moment when you realize what everything is really all about, and that the things that are of lasting value are worth more than gold...

After the horrific death of her girlfriend, Tiera Baker vowed to get revenge on the woman that committed the murder, and her father, Count Morris, who set the whole thing in motion. A dangerous and probably impossible task.

But life is never as simple as it first seems, and as she draws closer to fulfilling her goal, even greater problems present themselves. Not the least of which is that fact that someone wants her little brother Timon very dead, very much.

The question becomes one of time and will, as she struggles to find out who's behind all the problems that have plagued her family for so long, how to extract justice from a land that protects the wicked, and how to survive it all. It's an answer that will shake not just her, but the very fabric of the world.

This book is number eleven in the Young Ancients series for those reading them in order.
