SATHYA SAI BABA, 1926 – 2011, renowned world teacher of the 20th century, is followed by millions of people from all religions. This book is a firsthand account of the majesty and wonder of this miraculous being as seen through the eyes of an ordinary American woman who lived in His ashram for three years during the height of his personal power and glory. The power of Sai Baba's love transforms seekers into better human beings - exhorting integrity, social service, righteousness and loving kindness from each of them – insisting that peace on earth begins within each human heart. This is a journal for anyone on the path of devotion towards enlightenment, the path of unconditional divine love, known in India as the path of Bhakti. And for all devotees of the Avathar SATHYA SAI BABA.
