America's worst nightmare has come true: a "cyber-Pearl Harbor" attack by unknown terrorists has crippled the nation's power grid—and brought the land of the free to its knees. As widespread panic and violence ravage the country, its ruthless captors issue their ultimatums...and vow an apocalyptic reckoning.

A defenseless nation scrambles to fight an invisible invasion. Chief among America's last line of defense is Lana Elkins, head of a major cyber-security company—and former top NSA operative—who returns to her roots to spearhead the Agency's frantic efforts to combat the enemy's onslaught on its own terms. While she and her superiors take action to infiltrate a terrorist hotbed overseas, much closer to home ruthless jihadists with a nuclear bomb hijack a busload of schoolchildren—including Lana's daughter—and race toward a rendezvous with Armageddon in America's greatest city.

With Lethal Code, Thomas Waite raises the international techno-thriller to dangerously exciting levels—introducing a valiant new action heroine, and initiating a series that brings a harrowing new edge of realism to sensational speculative fiction.

As a university student, I exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or make a summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that have reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the teacher wants, like asked to go to the library. They go there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring, and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you personally.
