A Fun, Standalone Parallel Worlds Time Travel Romance Short Story

Tammy had a pretty boring life. Not a whole lot happened to her. As a bartender at a local pub one day drifted into another, just as one drunk face seemed to drift into another in a never ending monotonous stream. But she dreamed of bigger things for herself. She had always had this feeling that she was meant for something more – something much more...and then one day, just fetching a beer from the cellar she stumbled on a gateway that led her to a fantastical realm of adventure, romance, and intrigue... Could the things they say about her here really be true? Was she really the One ...the only one who could save this other world?
