Her Best Friend Marisa Michaels

Marisa Michaels tells a sweet story of two best friends who fall in love. A great read for anyone who has ever found themselves in this heart tugging position.

Four years ago, Cameron told Katie that he was in love with her as she was packing to move to Chicago. Scared, Katie told him she had never thought of him that way and never would. She didn't believe in falling in love with her best friend.

But after two lonely years in Chicago, her heart told her to go home and face Cam. Although he had moved on, she wrestled with the decision of letting him go or changing her mind and trying to cross that boundary with her once best friend.
