Time has heard the strains of a myriad of musical styles. Some styles live with age while others fade. The same is true of the composers themselves; some are regarded as brilliant masters from the beginning of their lives while others are praised only posthumously. Endurance is the ultimate test. Scott Joplin endured great injustices and criticism, yet he remains the “King of Ragtime”. We remember the master by publishing “The Entertainer, Solace & Maple Leaf Rag” in this special “3 in 1” original edition. Joplin’s most popular rag, “The Entertainer” reached high acclaim in 1973 as the most recognizable theme from the movie classic, “The Sting”. This Academy Award-Winning film was solely responsible for the resurgence of ragtime in general, but more specifically brought renewed interest in the works of Scott Joplin. Solace was frequently heard in the background of many scenes in which the character was deep in thought. Subtitled, A Mexican Serenade, Solace has a serene Latin feel, unlike no other samba written and is the favorite of many Joplin enthusiasts. “The Maple Leaf Rag”, actually became quite popular during Joplin’s lifetime, so much so that it was the first sheet of music to sell over one million copies. Santorella Publications is pleased to combine these three original rags in a special, “Signature Sheet” ragtime piano solo. This crisply engraved edition is clean, sharp, distinct and accurate. An absolute pleasure to read as each passing “mexican” note seems to “jump” off the page 1-58560-149-7,649571000493
