Cpt. Jack Steele is a medically retired army Special Forces captain forced out of the United States army because of a combat wound sustained during Desert Storm, and now he is called to the service of the church by the ancient order of the crimson brotherhood. A highly secretive religious sect that engage in warfare against the dark forces around the globe. The sect selects members by their spiritual signature that marks them as the royal priest hood of this sect and twelve brothers every generation are selected to be grand masters who oversee the global clan. Steele is swept from the Iraq war, he is enlisted into a far greater, and more sinister war that he never could of dream existed. The crimson brotherhood can trace their origin back to the ancient Essenes mystic culture and they are preparing for the consummation of the ages which mystic warrior Emanuel Swedenborg talked about hundreds of years ago.
