What do you do when your world is turned upside-down?

Diana Simms is a world-famous fashion model who is adored by everyone, but who feels completely alone.

Zach Daniels is a world-renowned artist, known for producing controversial works of art, and who has lost his creative spark.

Diana and Zach grew up together, having been thrust into the same house when they were both teenagers. Diana and Zach don't talk to one another anymore — not because of any sibling rivalry, but because they're both trying to run away from that one drunken night they spent together, and what it ultimately meant to each of them.

Now they're both back home to take care of their sick parents, and are living together again under the same roof. Everything seems normal ... until a mean-spirited prank from Zach shatters Diana's world and leaves her in tears.

It seems like all is lost to her, until a heartfelt confession from Zach rocks Diana's entire world. Now she has to figure out what to do about her strange and confused feelings ... and about the rest of her life.
