What's in Your Handbag, Girl?: Secret Ingredients & Material Suppliers for Making Structured Purses Teri Bethel

In this book "What's in Your Handbag, Girl?" handbag designer, artist & purse making instructor, Teri M. Bethel reveals her secret ingredients (purse making materials & tools) as well as her suppliers (resource) list to create easy and unbelievably beautiful structured handbags. Teri's sought after insights are a treasure trove of goodies right at your fingertips for bag makers and designers who wish to give their handbags a firm body that adds lasting value.

Before now Teri's materials & supplier's lists have been limited to her live classes and DVD Tutorials. For the first time ever she has made her purse making materials & supplies list available in book form for those who simply want to know what's in the bag along with links to the online suppliers.

Now you can do away with the floppy bags that lose their shape along with humdrum accessories that give your purses the "ordinary" stamp.

See for yourself:

What makes Teri's bags stand up & stand out...

Where to buy the best selection of purse handles & exotic beads...

Which closures are best suited for upscale handbags...

What kind of fabrics work well with these bags...

What tools are necessary in constructing the handbag...

What easily accessible materials are used to give the handbag a luxurious feel...

What features are needed for your sewing machine...

How you can learn Teri's techniques within hours to create amazing designer handbags from scratch...

Newbie purse students and seasoned handbag makers can now increase the value of their handbag by using these simple ingredients.
